Eagle Point Software Announces Partnership with SWYFT Solutions, Inc.

Dubuque, IA – December 4, 2023 – Eagle Point Software, creator of the Pinnacle Series learning management system, has announced an official partnership with SWYFT Solutions, a SOLIDWORKS reseller and integrator. SWYFT Solutions is a reseller recognized for its ability to integrate technology solutions that help set customers up for success both today and into the future.

“We are thrilled to welcome SWYFT Solutions as an Eagle Point partner,” stated Steve Biver, Eagle Point COO. “With a strong relationship with SOLIDWORKS, another of Eagle Point’s integral partners, SWYFT Solutions brings the ability to help customers both understand and implement software solutions. The tie-in with Pinnacle Series is an important component of helping to drive these customers to the most successful outcome possible, and this new relationship enables even better results for our joint clients.”

Stephen Wierenga, President of SWYFT Solutions, shared, “It is our mission to ensure that every client that works with SWYFT Solutions achieves success with SOLIDWORKS, not just access to it. We are very excited about our partnership with Eagle Point to strengthen our ability to deliver exceptional outcomes that exceed our clients’ expectations.”

Pinnacle Series is an AEC and manufacturing learning management system with a comprehensive library of videos, documents, and other development resources that enable long-term employee training, on-demand problem-solving, and digital transformation.
